National Night Out

Lockland Police took part in the Nation Night out event hosted by the neighboring City of Reading. Lockland has participated in this event for many years along with other agencies in Hamilton County. The event includes a dunk booth, K9 demonstration, games, and food as well as a chance for citizens to meet public service employees.

End of Summer Celebration

Lockland Police, along with other Village Departments, hosted the first End of Summer Celebration at Gardner Park. The event included games, food, a cornhole tournament and fireworks show at the end of the festival.

Boo Bash

Every October, the Lockland Police, along with other Village departments, host the annual Boo Bash at Gardner Park. Boo bash activities include trick or treating, smores making, a pumpkin patch, hayrides, costume contest, games, and food all free of charge for attendees.

Donut Party

SRO Ott along with Officer Dobbins celebrated fun Friday with some 3rd graders at Lockland Elementary. Earlier in the year the class asked Officer Ott if he enjoyed donuts since he's a police officer. SRO Ott brought in donuts to the same class that asked the question so he could share his fondness for the sweet treat with the students!

Hanging with Heroes

Officer Dobbins came up with the idea of a dinner with Lockland Officers and Fire Department members as a way for youth from the community to get to know their first responders. The event included a pizza party, gift baskets, and a tour of the Police Department and Fire Department.
