Delta Police Department

February 2026

The Delta Police Department supports its community and local businesses through various events held throughout the year.

Law Enforcement Torch Run for Special Olympics

The Delta Police Department proudly hosted a leg of the Law Enforcement Torch Run in support of Special Olympics. The event raised over $6,000 for the Fulton County Jaguars, helping to fund their trip to the Special Olympics in Columbus, Ohio. Following the run, participants and supporters enjoyed an afternoon of music, food, face painting, and games.

Heroes Vs Heros

Several members of the Delta Police Department competed in a community basketball tournament alongside local first responders and athletes from the Special Olympics. The event brought teams together for friendly competition while raising funds to support Special Olympics programs and participants.

Surprise readers at the elementary school

Officers from the department always make time to stop by the elementary school to be a surprise reader.

Safety Village

Officers from the Delta Police Department participated in Safety Village, where Chief Chappell spoke to children about bicycle safety. As part of the "Put a Lid on It!" program, the department provided free bicycle helmets to all participants, reinforcing the importance of safe riding habits.

Self Defense Class

In partnership with Keeping Our Girls Safe (KOGS), the Delta Police Department hosts a free self-defense class for the community. The department maintains a strong relationship with KOGS, frequently collaborating to promote safety, empowerment, and awareness throughout the area.

Cops and Bobbers

Officers from the Delta Police Department, along with ODNR and other local departments, participated in the Fulton County Cops and Bobbers event. Local kids were able to participate in archery, fishing, and a BB gun range.

Fulton County Humane Society Donations

To support the Humane Society and make donating more convenient for the community, the Delta Police Department became an official drop-off donation location. Thanks to the generosity of residents, several boxes of supplies have been collected and delivered to the Humane Society.

Chicken Festival

Every summer in Delta, the annual Chicken Festival is held. This year, the Delta Police Department set up a booth and invited the Fulton County Humane Society, NAMI, and KOGS to share their booth. The Department handed out bicycle helmets and held a free raffle for gun boxes received from the Store It Safe Program. The Delta Police Department helps to plan and lead the Chicken Festival Parade.
